Legislation would allow individuals to make voluntary donations above and beyond their normal tax liability to pay for additional spending by the federal government

(Washington, DC) – Tomorrow morning, U.S. Reps. John Campbell (R-CA), David Davis (R-TN), and Kevin McCarthy (R-CA), will officially launch legislation which would amend the Tax Code to allow individuals to make voluntary donations above and beyond their normal tax liability to pay for additional spending by the federal government. The bill, publicly known as the "Put Your Money Where Your Mouth Is," Act would also add a line on the tax form to enable them to make this contribution.
